

The Swamp Shakers band is united by enthusiastic and talented musicians who share their desire to play artistically high-quality music that they like, thus creating pleasure for themselves and listeners. The band features its own distinctive musical and dramatic stylistic image that is in between classical and modern rockabilly. It has also slight jump'n'jive, swing, rock'n'roll, rhythm'n'blues, country and blues influences. „We play lots of our original songs as well as fresh arrangements of classic 50's rockabilly, rock'n'roll, country and rhythm'n'blues, giving out all our energy and emotions that go to performance straight from our hearts!”

Pete Anderson & The Swamp Shakers was the rockabilly band created by the legendary Latvian King of Rock'n'Roll Pete Anderson (www.pitsandersons.lv), the very first true rock musician in the former USSR, and the winner of the Just Plain Folks Music Awards for the Best rockabilly album of the year 2009 (Nashville, USA). The band toured and performed with Pete until his very last concert in July 2015. The band members are Pete's devoted scholars and continue to perform as a trio since 2015. In 2014 the band with Pete Anderson released the debut album "Enjoy The Ride!" on Rhythm Bomb Records, with 14 original compositions and raving reviews from all over the international rockin' community and pro reviewers.

In 2019, The Swamp Shakers debut album "Don't Wanna Miss" is released with presentation at "Hanzas Perons". The album has very special format, it includes both CD and 45rpm vinyl, with 17 songs on the CD and 2 songs on vinyl. At the annual contest "Golden Microphone" 2020 it was included in the Top 5 albums in it's category. The song from the album is a semi-finalist at the International Songwriting Competition in USA, in 2020 and 2021.
